Subject: Advisory Committee Meeting #5: Interpretive Strategies

The next advisory committee meeting for the Michener's Chesapeake Country Scenic Byway will take place:

DATE: November 18, 2010 11:30-2:00PM

LOCATION: Robbins Heritage Center at the Dorchester County Historical Society/LaGrange Plantation, 1003 Greenway Drive, Cambridge

See Dorchester County Historical Society's website for directions/parking information at <http://dorchesterhistory.org/map.html>. From Rt. 50 in Cambridge, advisory committee members should turn onto Maryland Avenue at the stoplight (left if eastbound, right if westbound) and follow the signs to LaGrange Plantation/Dorchester County Historical Society.

Lunch will be provided - please RSVP by Monday, Nov. 15 by replying to this email so we can get an accurate count for lunch.

Tentative Agenda:

11:30 Recap of where we are (Jim Klein)

11:45 Overview of interpretive framework (Peter Benton)

12:30 Lunch and discussion of themed itineraries

1:15 Next Steps: Transportation

1:30 Informal discussion of grants (continued for those with interest)

Background materials for the draft interpretive framework discussion will be posted on the web site by November 14 at http://www.lardnerklein.com/mcsb_index.html

If you are interested in pursuing funds from FHWA's Scenic Byway Program for a grant project related to the byway corridor, we will hold another informal discussion after the main meeting on November 18th.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to call me, Jim Klein, at 1-800-337-1370.
